

CLINTON HISTORICAL MUSEUM
Hunterdon County

The old red gristmill, built in 1763, has been restored and is now a museum that contains four floors of 18th and 19th century American rural artifacts and rooms that recreate New Jersey history from 1690 to 1900. The ten acre country village has a blacksmith shop, school house, general store and post office.